

Wow! Cool gift!

OKay, click on this image in order to enlarge and see it better. It's a photo of my 13-year-old granddaughter, made up of tiny photos of me and her grandfather. The actual photo is 16"x20" and framed, and it is on its way to Germany for Christmas. The website for getting this done is www.photowow.com .. and now I am guilty of....what do they call it in movies, when a character holds a highly-visible can of Pepsi? Product Placement.

But it is very cool product.
