

Mercredi

This is my very small and sweet Paris hotel, Hotel du Pas de Calais, on the Left Bank; and tonight is my fourth and last night here. I'll miss the window-shopping, since I am surrounded here by very high-end designer shops. Tomorrow I move to a different part of Paris, for three more nights.

This is my fifth visit to Paris, and each time I have stayed in a different district, gotten to know a different neighborhood.

But this is the first time I've been here alone. I miss Martin. He'd hate the window-shopping though. (I mis-typed that at first, and it said widow-shopping. Freud? Explain that, please?)
