

QUARTET

The word makes me feel as if I should start singing "Sweet Adeline." But here they are: the four books that now comprise The Giver Quartet.

This is the sign for Brigham Hill Farm, which is a historic site in Brigham City, Utah. The sign is located in the main building of the farm, which is a well-preserved example of early 19th-century architecture. The sign is made of wood and is mounted on a wooden floor. The sign is a simple, rectangular sign with a black border and white background. The sign is a good example of the type of signage that is used at historic sites to provide information to visitors.
